COLORED MEMORIES OF

Time comes and goes by quickly. Each day leaves a passing memory . . . perhaps insignificant yet remembered. We, the staff of the 1960 VIRGINIAN, have tried to recapture and preserve some of these outstanding moments of the year.

Memories of the Rotunda, Ruffner Hall

Cunningham Dormitory—source of many pleasant memories to all upper classmen.

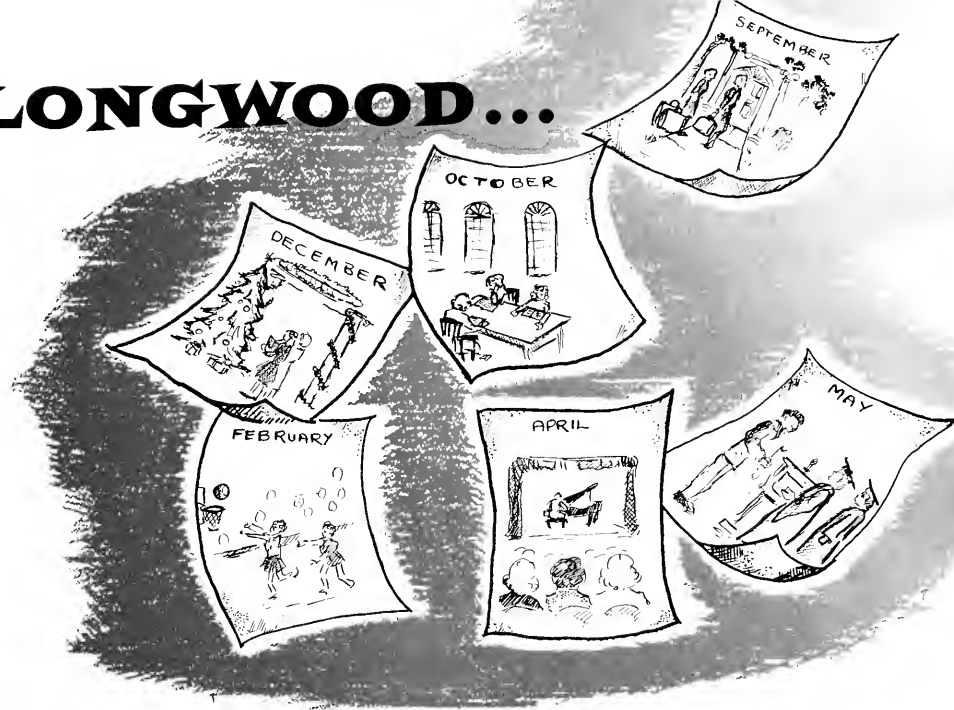

As you, the Longwood students, turn the pages of this book, we hope you will be reminded of those who have instructed and guided you, the friends you have made, the things you have done, and the honors which have been bestowed.

Memories are precious. We sincerely hope your memories of Longwood are golden and will grow more vivid as the years pass by.

LONGWOOD...

Jarman Hall—assembly each Tuesday!

The library clock, heard and watched by all Longwood students, day and night.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS OF TEACHER EDUCATION

During 1959 Longwood College celebrated the 75th anniversary of its founding as Virginia's first state-supported college for women. The convocation and Symposium on Teacher Education on October 13th were the final programs of the celebration. Founder's Day, Commencement, and the Institute of Southern Culture lecture series were the other major events of the year.

DR. LANKFORD

MRS. LANKFORD

Because of your devotion to Longwood College in furthering its reputation as a fine institution of higher learning . . .

Because of your omnipresent spirit, penetrating every phase of college life . . .
academic, social, and extra-curricular . . .

Because of your exemplary leadership which stands as a column of inspiration to each member of the student body . . .

Because of your symbolic loyalty and the love which endears Longwood College to us . . .

We gratefully dedicate this, the 1960
VIRGINIAN, to you . . .

DR. AND MRS. FRANCIS G. LANKFORD, JR.

COTILLION CLUB

The main purpose of the COTILLION CLUB, a social organization of 450 members, is to sponsor a formal dance each spring. Its colors, green and yellow, are representative of springtime.

This year the theme for Cotillion Club dance in April was "Cinderella's Ball." They danced to music played by Russ Carlyle and his orchestra.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We would like to express our appreciation to the following people who have helped make the publication of the 1960 VIRGINIAN possible:

Miss Virginia Bedford, general advisor, and Mr. J. H. Wamsley, business advisor of the VIRGINIAN, who guided and assisted in all phases of work.

Mr. Foster B. Gresham for his proofreading and excellent suggestions as our literary advisor.

The staff for the excellent job they accomplished and for the work they did—proof-reading, indexing, pasting, typing and working with the photographer so faithfully.

Mr. M. L. Glover and Roanoke Engraving Company for their help and wonderful advice pertaining to the layout, art work, and engravings.

Mr. W. L. Burton and C. W. Warthen Company for printing our yearbook.

To Mary Lee Warriner, editor of the 1961 VIRGINIAN, and Martha Gray Shirley, business manager, we wish much success in the year ahead.

L. CAROLYN OLIVER, Editor-in-Chief
